NEWPORT CASINO SCENE OF GREATEST TENNIS IN MANY SEASONS

The Newport casino where the big matches take place.

The Newport casino has been the scene of some of the most thrilling tennis for many seasons. The big eastern tournaments this season have seldom failed to startle all beholders just because there are five or six of the leading tennis stars doing a neck and neck dash for singles honors. Norris Williams, who won the Newport invitation affair last year, was put out a few days ago by Clarence Griffin.

GRAND ARMY GATHERING IN KANSAS CITY

With Bands Playing Everywhere Colors Flying from Every Available Point.

KANSAS CITY, August 26.—With bands playing everywhere and the nation's colors flying from every available point, Kansas City last night greeted thousands of the soldiers of the Grand Army of the Republic, gathered for the opening of their annual encampment which begins tomorrow. Nearly twenty thousand veterans were expected to attend the encampment and the town last night gave evidence that the number would be hardly less than that. Every train today, added scores to the crowd already here.

The main gathering of the organization will be held in Convention hall, which has been handsomely decorated for the occasion. The first informal meeting will be held tomorrow night, when Commander-in-Chief Monfort will preside. Addresses of welcome by Mayor Edwards, Governor Major and William H. Wornstead are on the program and speeches by past commanders will follow. Greetings will be extended by the several auxiliary bodies. Music by bands and singers will form a considerable part of the ceremonies.

Eight auxiliary organizations will hold meetings here during the sessions of the G. A. R. They are: The Ladies' Relief Corps; Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic; Association of Army Nurses of the Civil War; Daughters of Veterans; Sons of Veterans; Auxiliary National Association of Naval Veterans; and National Association of Union E-Prisoners of War.

Kansas City householders welcomed into their homes today great numbers of the union veterans. Between 15,000 and 20,000 veterans have reached the city and because capacity of hotels and boarding houses was taxed and because many of the old soldiers are in moderate circumstances, the citizens were asked by the local committee to take care of as many of the visitors as they could. Besides the veterans quartered in private homes, others were assigned in a large dance hall fitted out with cots. Other temporary homes have been arranged.

Convention hall, the place for the formal meetings of the veterans, has been divided into booths in which scattered members of regiments may re-unite. One of the booths has been turned over to the pension bureau at Washington, at the request of E. C. Tieman, acting commissioner, and in it questions pertaining to pensions will be answered.

A thousand boy scouts will act as guides and aids to the veterans while they are here. Under the direction of Dr. James H. Sowerby, chief scout executive, they have been trained to serve the soldiers in every way. Special training in first aid work has been given the youngsters.

"Whenever you speak to a veteran, call him 'comrade,'" said Dr. Sowerby in his final instructions. "They are keen for helping the old men," Dr. Sowerby said, "and I can imagine the stories the veterans will tell them. It will be good training for the boys and should be of great service to the men of the Grand Army."

CONGRESS TO ADJOURN

Friday or Saturday of Next Week Unless Something Unforeseen Happens.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS) WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—Administration leaders in Congress were Friday planning adjournment next Friday or Saturday. Senator Simmons, chairman of the finance committee, said he believed it could be done unless unforeseen developments arose.

Republican and Democratic leaders called absentees to have a quorum in the House Tuesday to dispose of the remaining business. It was stated by Democratic leaders that if a quorum was not available by Tuesday adjournment would be likely until the following week.

JONAH

Gallinger Calls Cannon Upon Which the Insurgent Wing Heaped the Blame.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS) WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—Senator Gallinger, Republican leader, and one of the "old guard," told the Senate Friday during debate on the revenue bill that former Speaker Cannon was "the Jonah" upon whom the insurgent wing of the Republicans heaped blame for the complaints against the Dingley tariff and that the late Senator Aldrich was chosen by them "as his confederate for attack and defameation." The Republican leader defended both Representative Cannon and Senator Aldrich.

LAST UNION SERVICE.

The last union service of all city churches will be held on the lawn of the Central Presbyterian church next to the Masonic temple on West Pike street, promptly at 7 p. m. Sunday, with the Rev. W. B. King, of the First Methodist church, as the speaker. Be sure to take "Make Christ King" song books, and be on time. There will be ample seating capacity for everyone.

TO PREVENT FIGHT.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS) OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., August 26.—Attorney General Freeling Friday issued instructions to the sheriff, mayor and county attorney of Tulsa not to allow the Morris-Moran fight, scheduled for Labor Day, to take place. According to the attorney general the staging of the fight would be in direct violation of the state laws.

GREAT CROWD SEES HUGHES

Republican Candidate Pours Hot Shot into the Democratic Administration.

ST. LAKE, Utah, August 26.—Charles E. Hughes, speaking before an audience that crowded every available foot of space in the great Mormon tabernacle here Thursday night assailed the administration for "specious disregard" of the civil service regulations in making appointments, declared that he stood for faithful observance of civil service and asserted that he would extend his sphere, if elected.

Mr. Hughes spoke with the Democratic candidate for governor sitting on the platform, and with other Democratic candidates and party officials, specially invited guests, in the hall.

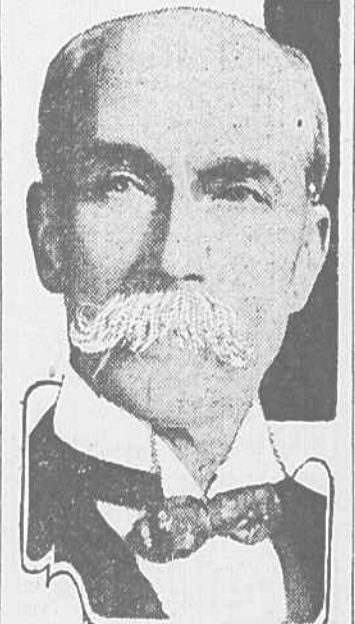

"We have had under this administration," the nominee said, "law after law enacted providing for the creation of thousands of places with provisions to the effect that it should not be necessary in making the appointments to conform to the merit system, which is another way of saying they need not be made under civil service regulations."

UNION SERVICES.

The First and Central Presbyterian churches will unite their congregations for Sabbath, August 27, and both will worship in the Central Presbyterian church at the morning service at 11 o'clock. The pastor of the Central church will deliver a sermon on "A Model Creed—Strictly Presbyterian."
